

LOC Social Sunday March 3rd 2024

I thought I would repeat the successful Social Sunday format from last year.

This time I am trying to arrange for it to be based on the Rusland Reading Rooms and make use of the Stony Hazel woods.

Put Sunday March 3rd in your diaries.

Similar format to last year, with a variety of short courses on offer.

SI boxes will be used to clearly identify the control location.

But no formal results – there will be a mini-printer if you require a paper printout.

Shelter, toilets & tea, coffee & cake in the Reading rooms.

I am waiting on access permissions into the wood but hope to advertise course & further details at the start of February.

I will send an email around the club at that stage.

Best wishes

Richard
